

MAJ Jackie Thompson is a member of the US Army Judge Advocate General's Corps. He has a B.S. in criminal justice from Illinois State University, a J.D. from Northern Illinois University, and an LLM in military law from the Judge Advocate General's School in Charlottesville, VA. He is currently attending the Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, KS.

MAJ Thompson enlisted in the Illinois National Guard in 1990 and attended basic training and advanced individual training at Fort McClellan, AL. He was assigned to the 933rd MP company and was mobilized for Desert Storm/Shield. He attended the Officer Candidate School at the Illinois Military Academy and was commissioned as an officer in 1996. In 1998 MAJ Thompson became an active duty JAG Officer and attended the Officer Basic Course in Charlottesville, VA. He has served in various jobs including: Legal Assistance Attorney and Trial Counsel, Fort Sam Houston, TX; Training Officer for the United States Army Trial Defense Service, Arlington, VA; Senior Defense Counsel, 101st Airborne Division; Chief of Justice and Administrative and Civil Law, Fort Jackson, South Carolina and as Brigade Judge Advocate for 2nd Brigade Combat Team, Fort Carson Colorado.

He has two deployments in Support of Operation Iraqi Freedom and has two Bronze Stars, 4 Meritorious Service Medals, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Humanitarian Service Award, and skill badges for Air Assault and Airborne.